Mr. Harold Weisberg,
Coq d'Or Farm,
Hyattstown, Maryland 20734.

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

It was good of Mr. Minifie to refer you to us but I consider it most unlikely that we should be able to make you any sort of publishing proposal for your book. Canadians, of course, were appalled at the time of the assassination, but I would be afraid that all interest in the subject has now evaporated. The young man had a certain number of admirers in this country and the news of his tragic death was naturally a shock, but very few of us have, I think, any continuing interest in either the man or the circumstances of his death.

I, therefore, do not really consider that it would be worth your while to send the manuscript to us for examination.

Yours truly,

Hugh K. Kane
